Price: From $1,565 per person, based on 2 in a King Studio. Have your own air? Deduct $535

Deep in the Elk Mountain Range, Mt. Crested Butte welcomes you to the edge of a vast wilderness. Escape the modern world in the downtown historic district, where local color comes in every shade of the rainbow. From the bright Victorian storefronts and the hand-painted free town shuttle bus to the smiles of the locals, the character comes in large doses. Three miles away are Crested Butte Mountain Resort's famous amenities and diverse terrain.

Dramatic contrast between the historic Victorian mining town and the modern ski village just three miles away, makes skiing Crested Butte one of the most fascinating vacation resorts in the Colorado Rockies. The skiing is also diverse, well-planned for all levels, plus an additional 550 acres of steep, ungroomed powder for the extreme enthusiast. Mt. Crested Butte, a modern ski village accommodates 6,500 guests with every amenity for state-of-the-art enjoyment. See how this resort specializes in relaxed western ambiance and warm hospitality, guaranteed to generate happy memories.

We will be staying at the Grand Lodge, just 200 yards from the ski lifts. Amenities include indoor/outdoor heated pool, spa, hot tub, fitness room, steam room and the onsite Woodstone Grill and Bar. The lodge is on the free shuttle route to the town and provides ski valet. Our accommodations include the Emmons Studios, King bed with an additional King Murphy bed, full kitchenettes with microwave, sink, fridge, stove, dishes and free wifi and bottled water. 2BR 2BA condos are on limited availability along with 1BR 1BA/Murphy suites. Lift ticket prices as low as $54/day for Adult. We are flying into Gunnison which is only a 45 min. ride to the lodge. And the trip price is really reasonable considering we fly into the local airport.

Oh – did we mention this is during Super Bowl!!!! We will have a Super Bowl party too.
